Objective

The event / information covered by this Policy shall include “information related to the Company’s business, operations or performance which has a significant impact on securities investment decisions” (hereinafter referred to as “material event / information”) that the Company is required to disclose in a timely and appropriate manner by applying the guidelines for assessing materiality.

Guidelines for Assessing Materiality

A. Qualitative criteria

To determine whether an event or information is material, the following qualitative criteria shall be used:

- a) The omission of an event or information which is likely to result in a discontinuity or alteration of an event or information which is already available publicly; or
- b) The omission of an event or information which is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date.

B. Quantitative criteria

To determine whether an event or information is material, the following quantitative criteria shall be used:

- (a) The events or information as stated in Annexure II of this Policy, other than those stated in (b) and (c) below, shall be considered as material if the value involved or the impact exceeds 10% of the gross turnover or 15% of the net worth (lower threshold shall be taken as a trigger) of the Company.
- (b) The event or information pertaining to loan agreements (as a borrower) or any other agreements which are binding and not in normal course of business (including any revisions or amendments or terminations thereof) shall be considered as material if the value involved or the impact exceeds 20% of the net worth of the Company.

The thresholds in (a) and (b) above shall be determined on the basis of audited consolidated financial statements of the Company’s last audited financial year.

The quantitative criteria shall be used as a yardstick or reference for determining materiality and arriving at the overall decision on the event to be reported.

The transactions between the Company and its subsidiaries shall not be deemed to be material.

- (c) The information on any customer contracts or any deal wins or contracts involving any business strategy or otherwise, shall be disclosed at the discretion of the Managing Director/Executive Director/Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and/or the Chief Financial Officer (CFO), as and when they deem fit.

4. Authority for determining materiality and dissemination of the Information hereunder

The following Key Managerial Personnel(s) are authorised to determine whether an event or information is material and for the purpose of making appropriate disclosure on a timely basis to Stock Exchange(s).

a) Determination of Materiality of Event: The Managing Director/Executive Director/Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) are severally authorized to determine materiality of an event/information under this Policy.
